

STRÖMSHOLM

– one of the eight Royal Castles in Sweden – contains a gem of an organ under the vault of the chapel. Its pipes from 1743 convey an unrivalled sound to us, and when played by master artist John Wellingham, UK, the period music fills our souls with joy.

I-3 JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH

Toccatà in G major

4-7 JOHAN HELMICH ROMAN

Sonata in D major

8-II WILLIAM BYRD

from The Fitzwilliam Virginal Book

12 JOHANN GOTTFRIED WALTHER

Warum sollt ich mich denn grämen

13-16 HENRY PURCELL

from A Choice Collection of Lessons &
The second part of Musick's Hand-maide

17 HENRY PURCELL

Voluntary in G major

18 JOHN BLOW

Prelude in A re

19-22 GEORG FRIEDRICH HÄNDEL

from The Water Music

23-26 ARCHANGELO CORELLI

Concerto III in C minor

27-28 WILLIAM BOYCE

Voluntary in G major

29-30 WILLIAM WALOND

Voluntary in G major

