

Joly Braga Santos (1924–88) was one of the most important composers in twentieth-century Portugal. In his early works his fondness for modal harmony, absorbed from the Portuguese masters of the Renaissance, and his busy counterpoint combine to make him sound surprisingly close to such particularly English composers as Vaughan Williams and Moeran. Although his harmonic language became more astringent with time, it retained a burly sense of humour and a powerful charge of energy.

TOCC 0207

JOLY BRAGA SANTOS Complete Chamber Music, Volume One

String Quartet No. 1 in D minor, Op. 4 (1945) 36:24

[1] I	Allegro moderato	8:17
[2] II	Allegro con fuoco	4:12
[3] III	Andante tranquillo	11:01
[4] IV	Allegro molto energico ed appassionato	12:54

String Quartet No. 2, Op. 27 (1957) 20:40

[5] I	Largo – Allegro moderato	7:14
[6] II	Adagio molto – Andante con moto	6:34
[7] III	Largo – Allegro molto vivace	6:52

21:42

9:23

7:09

5:10

TT 78:48

Quarteto Lopes-Graça

FIRST COMPLETE RECORDING

Luís Pacheco Cunha, violin

Maria José Laginha, violin

Isabel Pimentel, viola

Catherine Strynckx, cello

Leonor Braga Santos, viola [8]–[10]

Irene Lima, cello [8]–[10]

dgARTES
DIREÇÃO-GERAL
DAS ARTES

fundaçao
GDA

ANTENA 2

CCB

TOCCATA CLASSICS
16 Dalkeith Court,
Vincent Street,
London SW1P 4HH, UK

Tel: +44/0 207 821 5020
E-mail: info@toccataclassics.com

© Toccata Classics, London, 2019
® Toccata Classics, London, 2019

DDD
LC14674
COMPACT DISC
DIGITAL AUDIO

