

DIETRICH BUXTEHUDE

The Complete Organ Works

Bine Bryndorf

This acclaimed recording series of the complete organ works of Dietrich Buxtehude (c. 1637–1707) offers a unique musical journey in the footsteps of the Danish–German Baroque master. Organist Bine Bryndorf explores Buxtehude's inventive stylus phantasticus through the beautiful sound of five historic organs around the Baltic area, beginning in the composer's native town of Elsinore, and ending in Lübeck, where his successor J.S. Bach famously went to experience the art of the ageing organ legend.

Bryndorf proves an elegant stylist, using the full range of the instruments. Impressive! ★★★★★ (Classic FM)

Bine Bryndorf's excellent taste in registration, articulation and sense of musical line really illuminate the music from within ... Highly recommended. ★★★★★ BBC Music Magazine

6 CDs. Total playing time 6 h 31 m
