

*The DISCOVER series opens the door to key areas of classical music.
Through a combination of illustrative music tracks and a richly filled booklet, the exploration is both revealing and enjoyable.*

DISCOVER

music of the

20th CENTURY

Written and compiled by David McCleery

Even at the beginning of the new millennium, the words 'twentieth-century music' often inspire apprehension in audiences. While composers like Debussy, Vaughan Williams and Stravinsky have become concert-hall favourites, others such as Schoenberg, Boulez and Takemitsu are too often regarded as strange and unapproachable. Discover Music of the Twentieth Century is a comprehensive and easily digestible guide, leading us through the diverse, innovative and controversial musical history of this era. By describing the many different musical styles that flourished in the twentieth century and putting the music in its historical and social context, this booklet-and-CD set demystifies the whole subject of 'modern' music.

Includes music by Ravel, Schoenberg, Ives, Stravinsky, Bartók, Shostakovich, Messiaen, Britten, Cage, Reich, John Williams and more.

- 2 CDs of music
- 25,000-word essay
- Timeline of events in music, history, art & literature
- Illustrated throughout

Made in EU. All rights reserved. Unauthorised public performance, broadcasting and copying of these compact discs prohibited.

© 2005 Naxos Rights International Ltd
© 2005 Naxos Rights International Ltd

www.naxoseducational.com

8.558168-69

2 CDs

DDD

TT: 2:35:05

6 36943 81682 0