Ancient Egypt – The Glory of the Pharaohs tells us about civilisation under the pharaohs, of mysterious statues and tombs, incredible obelisks, the pyramids and the Sphinx. In this recording, the ancient Egyptian kingdom is brought to life in a way that fuels the listener's imagination, teaching and entertaining in equal measure.

Nicholas Boulton studied at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama, winning the BBC Carleton Hobbs Award for Radio in 1993. Since then he has been heard in numerous productions for BBC Radio 4 and the World Service. Work for Naxos AudioBooks includes Cecil in Lady Windermere's Fan and most recently David Copperfield. Film work includes Shakespeare in Love and Topsy Turvy. Theatre credits include Platonov for the Almeida, Henry V for the RSC and Arcadia for the Theatre Royal Haymarket.
