

Marcel Proust

Swann's Way

Read by Neville Jason

The Life and Work of Marcel Proust

Remembrance of Things Past is one of the monuments of 20th-century literature. Neville Jason's widely praised 36 CD abridged version has rightly become an audiobook landmark and now, upon numerous requests, he is recording the whole work unabridged which, when complete, will run for some 140 hours.

Swann's Way is the first of seven volumes and sets the scene with the narrator's memories famously provoked by the taste of that little cake, the madeleine, accompanied by a cup of lime-flowered tea. It is an unmatched portrait of fin-de-siècle France.

Neville Jason trained at RADA, where he was awarded the diction prize by Sir John Gielgud. He is a former member of the Old Vic Company and the Royal Shakespeare Company, amongst others. He has been a member of the BBC Radio Drama Company three times, and is heard regularly in radio plays, documentaries and arts programmes. For Naxos AudioBooks his readings include Vasari's Lives of the Great Artists, War and Peace, Far From the Madding Crowd and The Castle of Otranto. He won AudioFile Earphone awards for The Captive and Time Regained.
