

Boneland

ALAN GARNER

Read by Robert Powell

Boneland is Alan Garner's continuation of the story thread which began in his first and enduringly popular fantasy children's novel, The Weirdstone of Brisingamen. The Weirdstone was published in 1960 (it has never been out of print since), and The Moon of Gomrath followed, in 1963. This took the story further with the same two children, Colin and Susan. But Boneland is particularly fascinating because it takes the story into adulthood, with Colin again the main proponent. Boneland is read by the experienced actor Robert Powell, at the request of Alan Garner himself.

Robert Powell's numerous theatre credits include the recent UK tour of Jeffrey Bernard is Unwell as well as repertory seasons in Stoke, Scarborough and Bolton. He has been frequently seen in London's West End, particularly memorably with Tom Stoppard's Travesties (RSC) and Ubu Roi (Royal Court). Though best known on screen for the title role of Jesus of Nazareth, his extensive television and film work includes six series of Holby City and five series of The Detectives.
