L. M. Montgomery

Anne of Avonlea

Read by Liza Ross

Anne of Avonlea is the second in L.M. Montgomery's series of books about Anne Shirley. As her fans know, she is the flame-haired, vivacious and imaginative orphan who came to live with Marilla and Matthew Cuthbert in their home at Green Gables. Anne is now sixteen-and-a-half and is about to start teaching at the very same school she herself attended.

Those of you who know Anne will realise that she has always been delightfully accident-prone, falling into scrapes because of her plans and adventures. In Anne of Avonlea, despite her new responsibilities, she still can be harum-scarum and her life still does not always go according to plan.

Canadian born, Liza Ross has worked in London's West End and in repertory across the country, including plays such as Wings and The Front Page at the Royal National Theatre. Her many TV appearances include After the War, Poor Little Rich Girl, Two's Company and The Month of the Doctors. Her film work includes Batman and The Shadowchasers and she has worked extensively as a voice artist. For Naxos AudioBooks she also reads Anne of Green Gables, The Awakening, Uncle Tom's Cabin, The Wonderful Wizard of Oz and many others.
