

Abridged by Anna Bentinck

Produced & edited by Roy McMillan

Recorded at Motivation Sound Studios, London

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. UNAUTHORISED PUBLIC PERFORMANCE, BROADCASTING AND COPYING OF THESE COMPACT DISCS PROHIBITED.

© 2007 NAXOS AudioBooks Ltd. © 2007 NAXOS AudioBooks Ltd. Made in Germany.

CD 1: 78:12; CD 2: 79:36 Total: 2:37:48

JUNIOR
CLASSICS

2

Compact
Discs

NA246112

Edith Nesbit

THE STORY OF THE AMULET

Read by Anna Bentinck

To have their father and mother back home with them is the Bastable children's hearts' desire. Armed with one half of a magical amulet charm and with the Psammead again making an appearance in their lives, the children are whisked back in time to exciting and sometimes dangerous places such as Ancient Babylon and Atlantis to search out the missing half of the charm. Many adventures, thrills and problems are encountered before the amulet is complete again and can grant them their greatest wish.

Anna Bentinck trained at The Arts Educational School and has made over 800 broadcasts for BBC radio. Animation voices include the series 64 Zoo Lane, and on TV she has played Mary Dickens in Charles Dickens and Mary Rutherford in the Marie Curie series. Her many audio books range from Lyra's Oxford by Philip Pullman and A Little Death by Laura Wilson to Queen Victoria by Evelyn Anthony. She has also recorded Five Children and It, The Phoenix and the Carpet and Our Island Story for Naxos AudioBooks.

ISBN 962-634-461-X
ISBN 978-962-634-461-3

9

7 89626 344613

View our catalogue online at www.naxosaudiobooks.com

CLASSIC STORIES WITH CLASSICAL MUSIC