

CELEBRATE BEETHOVEN

CATALOGUE

LUDWIG VAN BEETHOVEN

(1770–1827)

Born in Bonn in 1770, the eldest son of a singer in the Kapelle of the Archbishop-Elector of Cologne and grandson of the Archbishop's Kapellmeister, Beethoven moved in 1792 to Vienna. There he had some lessons from Haydn and others, quickly establishing himself as a remarkable keyboard player and original composer. By 1815 increasing deafness had made public performance impossible and accentuated existing eccentricities of character, patiently tolerated by a series of rich patrons and his royal pupil the Archduke Rudolph. Beethoven did much to enlarge the possibilities of music and widen the horizons of later generations of composers. To his contemporaries he was sometimes a controversial figure, making heavy demands on listeners by both the length and the complexity of his writing, as he explored new fields of music.

Beethoven's monumental contribution to Western classical music is celebrated here in this definitive collection marking the 250th anniversary of the composer's birth. This CELEBRATE BEETHOVEN catalogue contains an impressive collection of works by this master composer across the Naxos Music Group labels.

Leif Segerstam surveys Beethoven's choral and stage music

Naxos highly regarded series of vocal and stage works by Beethoven recorded by conductor Leif Segerstam with the Turku Philharmonic Orchestra. Segerstam has said that he has a 'special place for Beethoven between his ears,' having grown up with the composer's music and conducting it frequently during his years in Vienna during the 1970s and 80s.

'The Turku Philharmonic and their local cathedral choir have both delicacy and heft, and the soloists... are absolutely top-drawer... Sensational music, brilliantly performed.'
